

Click on the (+) button in your browser to zoom in.

“From the information I received through your site, I am really excited about visiting Durham in the future. I expect to visit the city before the year is out.”

-Durham Visitor from Milledgeville, GA

Visitor Literature

◀ DCVB designs, produces, and distributes nearly 550,000 pieces of literature each year including the most comprehensive and widely published official guide for visitors and newcomers as a means to fulfill inquiries and optimize the circulation of visitors throughout the community.

Information Desks

▶ DCVB provides hospitality and information desks to help more than 1,000 conventions, meetings, and events provide on-site visitor information so delegates and attendees optimize their experience in Durham.

Publications, Services, Distribution, and Fulfillment

Information Kiosks

▶ DCVB distributes literature on Durham throughout the community via bi-weekly deliveries to 100 locations. The Bureau designed and co-produces Durham-branded kiosks in a number of sizes and variations.

Weekly e-Calendar

▲ DCVB maintains the comprehensive Durham Community Event Calendar on behalf of the City, County, and other messenger organizations. The Bureau is working with the Cultural Master Plan to make 14,000 listings available not only to residents and visitors, but also to help event planners clear dates and avoid conflicts.

Custom Event Maps

▶ DCVB works with facilities, events, and other stakeholders to design and produce maps and guides for participants to optimize the visitor experience.

Official Visitor Information Center

◀ DCVB operates the Official Durham Visitor Information Center, which provides counseling to visitors via the phone or in person and fulfills other inquiries from visitors including newcomers via mail, telephone, or advertising.